The funeral of Professor Darwin took place in London Wednesday, and there is to be a large funeral procession in London Friday. The interment was in Westminster abbey.

The duke of Argyll and Minister Lowell were among the pull-headers. The address was composed for the occasion.

One morning last week a daughter of William Rogers, of Mountain township, Fillmore county, died, in the afternoon the mother, died, and at 10 o'clock the father was thought to be dying. The autopsy is what they call the "black diphtheria." There is a great panic in the neighborhood.

The Brainerd papers are keeping themselves in a state of constant preparedness for the coming of the next election. The other party of the election are not taking any particular interest in the matter, but when the proper time comes a candidate for congress will be nominated by the republicans, and their possibility may not come from far.

The above is from the vindictive and party-splitting Journal Press of St. Cloud. We are sorry to see our neighbors stirred up over this matter, but will venture the assertion, for the benefit of the J. P., that it is altogether probable that the successful applicant for congressional honors will hail from Brainerd, and his name will be C. F. Kniftrud.

The ex-annation of ex-Secretary Blaine was continued Wednesday before the house. Committee on foreign affairs, he expressed his obligations for an opportunity to state that no important dispatches in regard to South American affairs were prepared during President Garfield's sickness. He stated, with much earnestness, that the English bondholders put up a job of war on Peru for booty; that Chili and England were now dividing spoils amounting to $60,000,000, and that history will hold the United States responsible for the dismemberment which has taken place.

"Rev." E. S. Cowditch, of Minneapolis, is largely in the divorce business now. His first wife obtained a divorce from him not long ago, alleging a lack of love of creature and during the process of a series of revival meetings is and overworked.

Excelsior last winter in which he was prominent. Bowdish married Mrs. Stoddard, a widow and the daughter of an old citizen of Excelsior. The first Mrs. Bowdish, heard of it went out to Excelsior, and brought the preacher into town. Mrs. Stoddard's late wife lived for a week's experience has obtained a divorce from her on the ground of adultery. The proceedings were had in Carver county.

WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENT.

The Methodist ministers seem to have taken upon themselves the reputation of an old citizen of Excelsior. Monday in Cincinnati and in Cleveland. In the former city a thousand persons were often upon the Sabbath, but the pastors in these could find it as their business to declare that the Sabbath law was fully observed and to declare that if any "degraded Germans" wish to be present, they should propose to draw light they must be smitten with their high, with holy fervor and unyielding aim. In Cleveland the Methodist brethren were jeering at the pleasure of what has become known there as St. Supt's day. The serious were closed, but it modified other transports to find that the Sunday papers were published. They have concluded that the Sabbath must not be broken by the publication of these papers. One brother confessed about once upon a time he had purchased a card of offense. It was when good Garfield stretched upon a bed of pain and the issue of life and death was unsettled. Like his fellow-men, he was eager to know what disposition the printing press would take of the order of the nation, and so he purchased the Sabbath morning paper. He did not think he did wrong. Of course he didn't. He does wrong, though, when he wishes to draw other men into the gratification of curiosity which was so strong in his case. They will wish to know with quite as much anxiety as he felt in another matter when, for instance, is the disposition of divine providence regarding the present mourning paper.

One of the received mourning papers, explained that religious people were being misled by the interesting pages of this wicked issue upon the Sabbath into regarding away from church, and there is a simple, plain remedy for metropolitan journals. As for the entertaining than the editors of great metropolitan journals, they are not general graces, there is sent hope of reform. The Sunday papers will be fast & full given regularly.

Major Edwards, of the Fargo, Ariz. was in St. Paul yesterday, and was heartily invited by a banking-pioneer to accompany him to the town of Brainerd, Minn., to see the new dam.

Attorney General Hall, in answer to the county attorney of Todd county as to whether a vote at a town election against the issuance of liquor licenses, evokes outstanding licenses not expired, decides that it does not, but simply evokes the question of license subsequent to the voting upon the question.

Mr. Dunn, in the Sun that shines for all, has the knowledge of age and the enthusiasm of youth. It is not long since he instructed a youth in the way that he should go clothed to the air. The information was timely and correct. Now a fair correspondent inquires whether the bride's father or the groom should engage a minister for wedding ceremony, and Mr. Dunn's gallant, but wholly trustworthy, response is: "The proper person to engage the minister, Miss Ethel, is your future husband, to whom we've sent our congratulations on his forthcoming bliss. He will, of course, enter into the delightful negotiations with the special clergyman whom you and your family desire to perform the important ceremony and arrange for the wedding on a day you shall select; a day which, for his sake, let us hope will be an enviable one. You do not tell us the name of the fortunate and the happy man. It was not necessary that you should do so. Whatever it is, after marriage put before it your maiden name, and let that be your signature. May the sun shine on your bliss, and may the moon and stars shine from him not long ago, alleging a divorce undrawn in your future home." Little touches of this kind show that line of creature and during the process of a series of revival meetings is and overworked.
